AROUND THE WORLD !!

ICAK- Canada Chapter

I promised you a memorable event. I believe we kept our promise.

Quality conferences, with interesting and passionate people, from all spheres of AK, presented their findings to you through moments of pure pleasure, with time to chat, meet up, communicate. Long live true human connections.

A sincere thank you to all those, participants and speakers, who traveled from overseas, who took time off from work, who had their children looked after. Each of you participated in creating the effervescence and intensity of the moment.

The meeting committee worked rigorously to offer a quality event in an interesting physical environment. I would like to invite the AK community to mobilize in order to participate in international events and thus develop our AK in cohesion with the realities specific to each region, with a common central core.

For those who didn't attend, let me remind you of our winners:

The annual IC award was presented to Dr. John Bandy, for his lifetime achievement.

Canada has chosen to present a special prize, the "Green Jacket award", named in honor of G. Goodheart, to Dr. Robert Blaich. More than 20 years ago, Dr. Blaich taught a group of Canadians, including myself, who traveled monthly from Quebec to the NCC in Chicago to receive his teachings. Dr. Blaich will have touched us with his kindness, his luminous presence and his many years of teaching, which will have forged more than one generation of AK doctors. Dr. Blaich should receive a custom-made green jacket in the mail within the next few weeks. We also highlighted the contribution of Dr. Leaf, who offered us a wonderful pre-meeting day, during which we reconnected with his keen eye for biomechanical dysfunctions and who offered us several clinical pearls to store preciously in our toolboxes.

I would also like to thank the IC for the special surprise prize given to me! My passion for AK hasn't waned since I graduated, and life now allows me to get involved in order to participate in developing and spreading AK in such a way as to allow us to share our wonderful passion with more qualified professionals. The ICAK MTL 2023 was a good example. Thanks to the IC for the recognition.

ICAK-USA recently introduced a new HTML publication, AK Clinical Applications Update. This is unlike our current e-newsletters! With AK Clinical Applications Update, we have asked the membership to get involved by sharing their knowledge, research and demonstrations.

Doctor members submitted a summary of their current findings (ie. Research), technique articles or a video demonstrating a technique that has helped diagnose and treat their patients. The objective is to have 4 submissions per issue that would be distributed to the full membership and archived on the website as a resource. Members can currently view Volume 1, No. 1 on www.icakusa.com.

We are now accepting submissions for issue #2! Please send your article, research summary or video, to icak@dcj-kansascity.com for review.

Please reach out to Angela Capra, 913-387-5608 or email acapra@dcj-kansascity.com if you have questions or need additional information.
